8 such title is amended by striking out “during fiscal year
9 1987” and inserting in lieu thereof “during fiscal year
10 1988”.

11 EFFECTIVE DATE

12 SEC. 503. The amendments made by this title shall take 13 effect on October 1, 1987.

14 TITLE VI—STUDY OF INTELLIGENCE
15 PERSONNEL SYSTEMS

16 COMMISSION ON INTELLIGENCE PERSONNEL SYSTEMS

17 SEC. 601. (a) ESTABLISHMENT; PURPOSE.—There is 18 hereby established a commission to be known as the Commis-
19 sion on Intelligence Personnel Systems. The Commission
20 shall conduct a comprehensive review and comparative anal-
21 ysis of all personnel management and compensation systems
22 affecting civilian personnel of agencies and other entities of 23 the intelligence community with a view to determining the 24 adequacy of existing personnel systems and any changes that 25 should be made in such systems.

1 (b) MEMBERS.—(1) The Commission shall consist of 2 three members. The President, the Speaker of the House of 3 Representatives (after consultation with the minority leader
4 of the House), and the majority leader of the Senate (after 5 consultation with the minority leader of the Senate) shall 6 each appoint one member. The member appointed by the 7 President shall be the chairman of the Commission.

8 (2) Members of the Commission shall be appointed from 9 among persons outside the Government who by reason of 10 training, background, education, and experience in intelli-
11 gence matters and personnel systems are highly qualified to 12 study the matters described in subsection (a).

13 (3) Members of the Commission shall be paid at the 14 daily equivalent of a rate not to exceed the rate of basic pay
15 payable for level IV of the Executive Schedule for each day
16 (including traveltime) that they are engaged in the business of 17 the Commission.

18 (4) A member of the Commission shall not be considered
19 to be a Federal employee except for purposes of—

20 (A) chapter 81 of title 5, United States Code, re-
21 lating to compensation for work-related injuries; and

22 (B) chapter 171 of title 28, United States Code,
23 relating to tort claims.

24 (c) STAFF.—(1) The Commission may (without regard 25 to section 5311(b) of title 5, United States Code) appoint an

1 executive director, who shall be paid at a rate not to exceed 2 the rate of basic pay payable for level IV of the Executive 3 Schedule.

4 (2) The Commission may appoint such additional staff as 5 it considers appropriate. Such personnel shall be paid at a
6 rate not to exceed the rate of basic pay payable for grade
7 GS-18 of the General Schedule under section 5332 of title 5,
8 United States Code.

9 (3) The executive director and staff of the Commission
10 may be appointed without regard to the provisions of title 5,
11 United States Code, governing appointments in the executive 12 branch and may be paid without regard to the provisions of 13 chapter 51 and subchapter III of chapter 53 of such title
14 relating to classification and General Schedule pay rates.

15 (4) The Commission may procure temporary and inter-
16 mittent services under section 3109(b) of title 5, United 17 States Code.

18 (d) SUPPORT.—Upon request of the Commission, the 19 Director of Central Intelligence, the Director of the Intelli-
20 gence Community Staff, and the heads of the elements of the 21 intelligence community may detail personnel under their ju-
22 risdiction to the Commission to assist the Commission in car-
23 rying out its duties under this section and may provide to the 24 Commission such administrative support services as the 25 Commission may require.

1 (e) FUNDING.—Of the amount available to the Intelli-
2 gence Community Staff for fiscal year 1988 under section
3 201, $500,000 shall be available for the Commission.

4 (f) REPORT.—Not later than nine months after the date
5 of the enactment of this Act, the Commission shall submit to 6 the President and to Congress a report setting forth its find-
7 ings and conclusions and such recommendation (including 8 recommendations for legislation) as the Commission considers 9 appropriate.

10 TITLE VII—GENERAL PROVISIONS

11 RESTRICTION OF CONDUCT OF INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES

12 SEC. 701. The authorization of appropriations by this 13 Act shall not be deemed to constitute authority for the con-
14 duct of any intelligence activity which is not otherwise au-
15 thorized by the Constitution or laws of the United States.
